

Our goal is to promote an understanding of Florida's justice system and our laws, develop critical thinking abilities and problem-solving skills, and demonstrate the effective interaction of our courts within the constitutional structure.

Are you looking for a fulfilling and effective way to give back to the community and your profession? Chief Justice Fred Lewis has initiated a program in which lawyers and judges can participate in the citizen education process by teaching in a nearby public or private elementary, middle or high school. Volunteers are needed to partner with local schools and serve as resource persons in the classroom. If you enjoy working with students and helping teach about the courts, our governmental structure, and the Constitution, we need your help. Research, preparation, lesson plans, AND TRAINING are provided to you gratis by the Justice Teaching program.

The Tenth Circuit Representative for this initiative is Judge Ralph Artigliere, who is available to answer any of your questions.
